Call Meeting
To Organize
Union NowLocal Chapter To Be Formed At Park House
Meeting Next Tuesday

Following approval by the city council Tuesday evening of a request from Miss Marian Vannier that Federal Union, Inc., be granted use of the city park house for the purpose of organizing a Sierra Madre chapter of the organization, announcement was made by Dr. Theodore Dunham, Jr., that the meeting will be held Tuesday evening, March 4, at 8 o'clock.

Dr. W. B. Heagerty will preside. Speakers will be Lee Shippey, chairman of the Pasadena committee, and Dr. Dunham, vice-chairman of the Pasadena committee. Miss Elizabeth Page will also be present. Officers will be elected at this time to guide the Sierra Madre chapter.

Federal Union, Inc., is the organization which has grown up during the last year as the result of wide interest in Clarence Streit's book, "Union Now," which presents a plan for world government based on a federal union of democracies, similar in many ways to the American form of government. Many adherents of the plan believe that such a system must be adopted after this war, to avoid the serious danger of a third world war. They believe that the possible adoption of the plan depends largely on the degree to which it is discussed before the war ends.

More than 30 Sierra Madreans hold membership in the active Pasadena committee which has been functioning for more than a year. Because of this large membership of local people, the belief has developed that it is now time to form a Sierra Madre chapter, which will meet in a central location for discussions.

Neglected Palms In Downtown Area May
Soon Be Replaced

Sierra Madre's downtown area may soon be relieved of stunted Coccothrinax palm trees, if the city Planning Commission approves a motion made at Tuesday's council meeting by Councilman Thomas Schwartz.

At the request of Howard Skeels, local druggist and member of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, Schwartz asked that the possibility of replacing broken and stunted palm trees along Sierra Madre Blvd. be taken up by the Planning Commission.

While many of the trees have shown excellent response to care given them by some of the downtown business men, others have been so neglected that they have become a source of annoyance. Replacement of these trees would greatly improve the appearance of the downtown district in the opinion of merchants.

STORM DRAINAGE HELD MOST
VEXING PROBLEM FACING
PEOPLE OF THIS COUNTYWILLIAM A. SMITH
Supervisor, 1st Supervisorial
District

When gag writers and comedians have exhausted the usual reservoirs in their efforts to promote humor, they rely on Southern California weather to inspire anything from sympathetic smiles to derisive guffaws. These recurrent jokes are apparently appreciated by everybody except those folks being buffeted by the weather. People who have been successfully annoyed, irritated, inconvenienced and who have suffered personal or property damage can scarcely be censured for failure to see why a rain in California should be vastly funnier than a blizzard in Kansas or Iowa.

Those folks who have escaped major discomforts owe it solely to some fortunate—and perhaps even temporary—topography. In no event should they credit it to a pull with Jupiter Pluvius or even to their own nimble footwork. The section that may be relatively safe and dry this season may be the very one yelling loudest for somebody to do something; due to a number of things, touched on later. From the vantage point of your Supervisor, you may be assured that drainage of storm water is everybody's problem.

The native topography of Los Angeles County makes it one of the nation's number one problem children in the matter of storm water disposal. Man's re-shaping of this topography—mere pin points on the vast surface—may relieve a "hot-spot." But along come many, many other things to complicate the spot-corrections. For instance, every square foot of paving added anywhere, public or private, adds to the strain put on the storm drainage facilities. Every structure, of any description, does two things. It lessens the natural earth absorption area and piles the water onto a REDUCED absorption space. Engineers who have pursued the as-

Curfew Law Will Be
Rigidly Enforced
Says Police Chief

Due to an increasing number of complaints regarding children being on the streets after 9 o'clock, Police Chief McMillan has issued a formal statement to the effect that the curfew law will be rigidly enforced. "In the future," said McMillan, "all children under 16 who are unaccompanied, must be off the street by 9 o'clock, and we earnestly request the cooperation of parents in our efforts to enforce the law."

Leo Cullum
Named Head
Of The C. C.Asks Cooperation Of Townfolk To Promote
City's Welfare

Leo Cullum, prominent local merchant, was elected to the presidency of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce for 1941, at the annual meeting of the organization held Thursday evening at the city hall. Cullum succeeds Harry Lange, who will continue to serve on the board of directors.

In accepting the office Cullum said, "We all realize that a Chamber of Commerce is only as strong as its membership and can only accomplish that which the members will it to accomplish. No one of us alone can achieve those things which make for a better and more prosperous community. As president of the Chamber of Commerce, I earnestly solicit the cooperation of merchants and civic minded citizens of Sierra Madre, not that our city may accrue to me, but that our city may become a better and happier place in which to live. Remember, if you are one of those who continually says 'let the other fellow do it,' then you have no kick coming if he makes a mess of the job you should have done."

Members of the organization who will serve on the board of directors with Lange are Bruce McGill, H. E. Roberts, Howard Skeels, William L. Burr, Joe Belchavsky, Jr., Oliver J. Fairfield, John Fitzgerald, Byron Hopper and Lloyd Welch.

Army Commission
For E. Hart Ross

Called for active service with the third division of the 10th engineers, U.S. Army, E. Hart Ross of 387 North Baldwin avenue will leave Saturday evening for Fort Lewis, Wash. Ross, who was a member of the R.O.T.C. while at college, has held a reserve lieutenant's commission since 1925 when he received his degree in electrical engineering from the California Institute of Technology. He leaves a position with the American Totalisator Co. Until school is over, Mrs. Ross and their daughter June will remain in Sierra Madre.

New Building Code
Seems Probable

Possibility that Sierra Madre may soon adopt a new building code ordinance which will improve methods of electrical wiring, was seen this week when members of the city council were informed that a committee meeting between their body, city building inspector William Lees, and a representative of the Edison Co., who assists in drawing up electrical ordinances, has been set for Wednesday evening, March 5.

Lees has for sometime maintained that that portion of the city's code governing electrical wiring is obsolete, and had previously asked that a meeting be called to determine how to improve the code.

Expect 70,000 Will
See World's Richest
Race Saturday

The world's richest horse race—the $100,000-added Santa Anita handicap at 1 1/4 miles—takes place this Saturday (March 1) with predictions of clear skies, a fast track and a banner attendance of over 70,000 spectators.

Record Rainfall At Reservoir Calls
For Improvement

The city council this week ordered plans and specifications for extension in the height of the retaining wall on the north side of Mira Monte reservoir and erection of a six-foot wire fence around the north, east and south sides of the reservoir. During the heavy Saturday storm 1.20 inches of rain fell in the vicinity of the reservoir within an hour, making it apparent that unless the wall is increased, there would be possible future damage to water impounded in the reservoir by muddy water rushing over the present low wall.

Churches To Observe Day
Of PrayerTwo Congregations Join
In World-Wide Movement
At Service Tomorrow

Joining with Christians in 51 countries of the world who have dedicated the first Friday in Lent to special prayer services, Sierra Madreans will observe the World Day of Prayer at the Congregational Church tomorrow.

Women from the Congregational Church and the Church of the Ascension form the committee in charge, working under the chairmanship of Mrs. Frederic Groetsma, who in announcing that Sierra Madre women would take part in the International Lenten observance said: "Anything in this day and age which can bind together the nations of our earth into a common purpose and create a common mind among mankind for even one day is certainly of special importance. Therefore the National Committee for the World Day of Prayer takes pleasure in announcing that arrangements have been made for the World Day of Prayer to be observed this year on Friday, February 28, in 51 different countries, and in more than 10,000 separate services in the United States alone. The women of this community will want to share in this significant step toward international unity."

First step toward uniting Christians throughout the world by such a service was taken in 1887 when Presbyterian women in the United States came together to pray for home missions. The movement subsequently spread into Canada and in 1920 women of all denominations in both countries took part in the service. The World Day of Prayer was first observed in all countries in 1927. Forty hours elapse from dawn in the Fiji Islands until midnight in Alaska, and during this entire time services continue throughout the world.

Both the Church of the Ascension and the Congregational Church will be open all day for meditation and prayer, while the formal service will begin at the Congregational Church at 2 p.m. Mrs. W. S. Hull will lead, while readers' parts and prayers will be given by members of both congregations.

Music will be under the direction of Mrs. Samuel Kirk and will include singing by members of the choir from both churches. A service, beautiful in its simplicity and sincerity, has been arranged and all women of the community will be welcome.

The offering will be divided between four projects, aid to migrants and Indians, distribution of Christian literature, and support of Christian Colleges in the Orient.

Committee members working with Mrs. Groetsma are Mrs. John Neal, Mrs. W. B. Heagerty, Mrs. C. A. Hawley, Miss Daisy Hawks, and Miss Marian Vannier of the Church of the Ascension, and Mrs. Fred Staff, Mrs. Convers L. Twycross, and Mrs. W. S. Hull of the Congregational Church.

Camp Nearby Will House Objectors To
The Draft Law

Conscientious objectors to military service from all states west of the Rocky Mountains will soon be established in a camp located in the San Dimas Experimental Forest north of Glendora. It was revealed following completion of negotiations for the project.

Details for establishment of the camp were worked out following an executive order just issued by President Roosevelt, authorizing "work of national importance" for men with conscientious objections to military service.

J. D. Sinclair, in charge of the 17,000-acre experiment area north of Glendora stated this week that the plan has been approved by forest officials, paving the way for immediate opening of the camp.

Located at Tanbark Flats, the camp will be established in buildings formerly occupied by workmen employed in the experimental forest. Accommodations are available for as many as 150 men.

Henry B. Neutzel, former Sierra Madrean, and son of Mrs. C. W. Collins of 124 East Alegria avenue, and Evanston, Ill., was among a group of 146 young men to report recently at Moffett Field for basic training at the West Coast Air Corps Training Center maintained there.

Important Post For Sierra Madre Woman

Mrs. Waverly E. Pratt of 359 Grove street, has been appointed chairman of the admissions committee for the 11th annual Woman's Civic Conference to be held on the University of Southern California campus, March 11. Planned as a one-day extensive study of governmental problems, leaders of several hundred outstanding women's civic organizations will meet with government officials and faculty members from U.S.C., Loyola, Whittier, UCLA, and California Institute of Technology to discuss the general theme of the conference, "Forging Freedom's Future." Last year 2000 women attended the conference.

THE LIGHT THAT MUST NOT FAIL

Rainstorms
Leave City
Unscathed

While foothill towns to the west of Sierra Madre were reporting considerable damage from a rain of cloudburst proportions which deluged the area Saturday, there was practically no damage in Sierra Madre.

Only discomfort to local citizens came Friday evening at 6:30 when lightning burned out the Edison Company switch at the Mira Monte pumping house. Electric wires were burned in several places between the Mira Monte and Sierra Madre blvd. pumping plants, leaving the city in darkness until 7:35 when repairs were completed. During this hour members of the O.E.S. and Masons assembled at the Masonic Temple for a dinner and lecture, and Sierra Madre Woman's Club Juniors, preparing for the first presentation of their spring play, assumed that candle light is still effective in an emergency.

Saturday's storm which brought 1.20 inches of rainfall in the region of the Mira Monte reservoir tapered off before reaching the eastern city limits, where only .48 inches were recorded at the Santa Anita ranger station.

All basins at the spreading ground on East Grand View avenue were filled by the storm. Due to the necessity of flushing silt from the Little Santa Anita dam, no water is being taken from the channel during the day-time, but at night a gravity pipe is connected at Camillo street so that some of the runoff water is diverted to the spreading grounds.

Rainfall figures released from the city pumping plant give the season's total as 23.04, while 1.65 inches were recorded Saturday, and .31 inches since Sunday. Temperatures for the week were:

Council Approves
City Clerk's Bonds

City council Tuesday evening voted acceptance of two bonds of $5000 each, issued by the Great American Indemnity Co. for Waverly Pratt, city clerk. One bond will cover Pratt in his office of city clerk while the other will cover all additional official duties performed by him.

On recommendation of Sam Graham, city engineer, the council also approved lighting of an ornamental light on North Hermosa avenue, just west of Auburn avenue.

A letter from E. P. Terry of 445 Sturtevant drive, urging an effort be made to induce the Pacific Electric Railway to extend bus service to this city, was referred to the Chamber of Commerce.

Stickup Man Still Working In Santa
Anita Canyon

Second holdup to occur within the last two weeks on upper Santa Anita avenue near the intersection of Sturtevant Trail came last week when George M. Beck of 423 North Stoneman avenue, Alhambra, lost $4.00 to the same man who the week before took $41.00 from Charles F. White of Monrovia.

Beck reported the holdup in Arcadia, from where it was referred to the Temple City sub station of the sheriffs office, and then to the Sierra Madre police, who arrested a suspect whom they later released for lack of identification.

Should This Nation Feed
Europe?

By Dr. A. O. Pritchard

Shall we feed the hungry people of Finland, Holland, Norway and Central Poland. This is a question raised by a National Committee. For a time it seemed answered by the decision of the British ministry that they would not allow ships to pass the blockade. But people with an active conscience could not let the question alone. Furthermore they remembered that the Allies said the same thing in 1917. But public opinion then was so strong the ministry amended its action and did allow the American Committee, Herbert Hoover, chairman, to feed millions of hungry in Belgium, France and Germany. Furthermore Lloyd George, then prime minister of Britain, warmly commended the work of the committee that contributed over $100,000,000 for the purpose.

Just now there is no call for food or money by the committee, but they wish the public to be informed in the hope that an aroused public opinion may result in a decision on the part of the British as in 1917.

Naturally we do not want to feed the German army, but the technique of distributing the food by a neutral committee is such that the supply automatically stops if the food is diverted from the women and children. The system used in 1917-1920 was so efficient Lloyd George gave it the highest praise. It is planned to apply the same technique this time.

The committee is anxious to hear from any and all who are in sympathy with the plan. Write The National Committee for the Five Small Democracies, 420 Lexington Ave., New York City.

Jobless And
In Debt Man
Ends Life

Being in debt and without employment, Cedric L. Angus, former resident of Sierra Madre, drove into the garage of a vacant residence at 180 Adams street Friday and ended his life by connecting a hose to the exhaust of his car. His body was found Saturday morning by V. L. Carpenter, son of the owner of the property, who was making repairs on the house. Angus left no note, and the above motives were given by Sierra Madre police after an extensive investigation. Although he had at one time mentioned a brother living in Oregon, local officers have not been able to locate any relatives.

Until a few weeks ago Angus had been working in an Arcadia cafe. He was a gardener and had formerly lived at 424 First avenue, Arcadia. He left this address about two months ago and this time apparently had no permanent residence. He was 38 years old and unmarried. The body was taken to Grant Chapel.

Draftees To Be Inducted
By Local Board

Five Sierra Madreans are among the men called this week by local draft board 191 at Monrovia, for induction into military service under the third call of the selective service act on Thursday, March 6.

Only volunteer in the group is Edward Marion Lange of 33 West Montecito avenue, brother of Harry Lange. He is a graduate of Long Beach high school and has lived here for the last two years. For several months he has been employed at Cullum's Market. Young Lange volunteered so that he might complete his military service in 1942 when he hopes to go to South America, where he believes the future holds many fine opportunities for young men from this country who understand that there will be a definite mission in cementing more friendly relations between the United States and the southern republics.

Draftees called up are Emery Schell Hanson, formerly of 250 West Highland avenue, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Hansen, Jr., who is now employed by the Lockheed Aircraft Corp.; Hiram Clifton Evans, of 52 West Sierra Madre blvd.; Carl Wayne Cullum of 265 1/2 Mariposa avenue, brother of Leo Cullum, and David Leon Tiller of 496 West Sierra Madre blvd.

The Sierra Madreans and 25 other men from the district, including two negroes, will leave from the P.E. station at Monrovia at 9 a.m. March 6. They will go to the induction station at Fort McArthur, where they will probably remain two days before leaving for camp.

Burt Granger, chief set dresser for the studio, completed details this week so that everything would be ready for Wellman to-day.

Filming of this sequence is expected to require one day and a night. The period will be in 1906 and the locale Hoyt City, a town on the Mississippi.

As It Appears To me

¶ Sunday morning—sitting in the old oboe on East Montecito avenue, listening to a group of young musicians working on the Mozart G minor symphony, playing for hours to smooth out difficult passages. Jascha Gagne, patiently taking them through movements again and again, showing them how the Los Angeles Philharmonic orchestra plays a passage under Molinare, Klemperer or other great conductors with whose work he is familiar.

¶ Listening—one hears not just this group of young artists, but also subconsciously, thousands of similar groups working in cities throughout the nation—the world—becoming one with the infinite through music.

¶ It isn't often that young people have an opportunity to work under such a master as Gagne, nor is it usual for an established member of a great orchestra to spend hours directing young players, simply for the love of music and young musicians. Again in our town we find one of the finest efforts toward the advancement of young people, in a great art. Anyone who plays at all well may become a member of this group, and those who do not are passing by a very fine opportunity.

¶ Very disturbing word coming to us about young Americans who have been drafted into selective service. Not our local boys, however, but some with whom they have been associated, cracking up under discipline—first absence from home—or perhaps, fear of war. In any event it seems rather awful that boys who are emotionally unfitted for general military service, cannot be placed in some other branch of national defense work, where they might be of value to the country.

¶ From Mrs. William Handley in Fairbanks, Alaska, comes word of the training given Alaska men... long distance marching in weather at least 28 below zero, to test snow shoes and types of garments, and harden the men to cold weather travel.

¶ James F. Brown, corporal with the 28th engineers at Annette Island, Alaska, writes that his regiment has been cutting down a forest in order to build a landing field.

¶ One person we didn't envy last weekend was young Jim Rizor who tumbled off the curb at Baldwin and Bonita avenues at noon Saturday, just after the heavy rain in the mountains nearly flooded the downtown district, and was swept into the drain under the Bonita intersection. Only the efforts of young Billy Kinney who pulled him out on the other side saved him from being swept on down the drain, not a pleasant experience for a youngster.

¶ Special thing for all of us to remember until the situation no longer exists... That there is real need for men's and boys' shoes at the Red Cross... Let's remember people in other parts of the world who are in need, but at the same time let's not completely lose sight of the needs of our own townspeople.

¶ Also, does anyone know where our past president of the Chamber of Commerce, Harry Lange, can get a job which will make it possible for him to work one week, annually, and spend the other 51 weeks fishing? Here at the NEWS we have our own set of wishes, but ours can in no sense equal this one of Harry's.

Woman's Club Notes

Members of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club proved themselves to be gracious hostesses Wednesday, which was Reciprocity Day at the clubhouse. Forty representatives from surrounding communities were present to become acquainted with their fellow club women and to enjoy the program for the day.

Performing artists for the afternoon, Mary Lou Billheimer and Marguerite Hart, were introduced to their appreciative audience by Hazel James Ferguson, program chairman. Miss Hart sang two groups of classical songs, accompanied at the piano by her grandmother, Mrs. Alice Maude Jackson. Mary Lou Billheimer, granddaughter of J. S. Billheimer, gave three monologues. Both Miss Hart and Miss Billheimer gave interesting performances and added even more color and gaiety to the day's program.

Mrs. John H. Robertson, reciprocity chairman, introduced Mrs. W. J. Lawless, past president of the club, and presented her with a pioneer medal of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, in appreciation of her past and present activities in the Sierra Madre club.

Following the program, the women adjourned to the dining hall for tea and sandwiches. Mrs. Mae Warren Hicks and Mrs. W. J. Lawless presided over the tea table and were relieved by Mrs. W. S. Hull and Mrs. R. S. Corlett.

Top Pictures Now At Wistaria Theatre

Breath-taking excitement, romance and drama, mystery and intrigue are unfolded in the thrill-packed story of Walter Wanger's "Foreign Correspondent," with a prominent stellar cast, slated for showing at the Wistaria Theatre on Sunday through Tuesday, March 2, 3, and 4. "Foreign Correspondent" has in its principal roles Joe McCrea, Laraine Day, Herbert Marshall, George Sanders and Robert Benchley. "Flight from Density" is the co-feature.

W. C. Fields is starred in the character of a bank detective in his new Universal laughmaker, "The Bank Dick," which comes to the Wistaria tomorrow. The comedian has always desired to portray this character on the screen.

Against the colorful and adventure-filled background of the old west, in the days when justice was administered at the point of a gun, Samuel Goldwyn's "The Westerner" with Gary Cooper in the title role, will have its showing at the Wistaria tomorrow and Saturday, February 28th and March 1st.

THERE'S A MORAL HERE

Going away and leaving your home unlocked, may be a good old Sierra Madre custom, but it proved an unwise one for Bernie DeLeon, operator of the Seaside Service station last week. DeLeon who lives at No. 7 Audubon court, returned home at 8:30 Wednesday evening to find his clothing, radio and a bed lamp missing. Police later arrested a suspect in San Pedro, but released him after questioning. The missing articles have not been located.

SO WE thought of Fred's ducks, and of the Preston Schwartz goose, and also of certain Sandhill Crane—this especially—the other day when those wild geese went over. Of the Sandhill Crane who lived with a friend of ours on the Ste. Luke inlet down in Florida. A wild crane, except for the body of the house. Whom he'd talk with, ignoring all others—whom he undoubtedly loved. Mysterious no end. A beautiful big, tall and slender; who'd click to the lady as they strolled along, as if he were trying to tell her things. And there'd come times when other cranes would fly over—high, high up; higher even maybe than the wild geese fly—and this crane would fly off to join them. Gone for days. Then returning; and trying to tell the lady something—something wonderful. "Dear Lord," we used to think; "if we could only understand!"

As a stellar attraction in the east of scenic states which hotly compete for tourists' favor, California has reason to look with optimism on the summer ahead. Virtually all travel experts are unanimous in declaring this year's touring tides will sweep as high as, if not higher than last year's when all travel records were broken. Barring a major change in America's foreign relations, California can prepare to dust off an extra-size welcome mat to greet her hosts of visitors, old and new, come the summer of '41!

What's Going On At The Grammar School

AS TOLD BY THE PUPIL-REPORTERS

Mrs. Coupe's Class: We had two children celebrating their eighth birthdays today. They are big children now.—Joan Young, Dwight Schultz.

THE STORY OF A GIRL—A girl was playing. Her mother called to her to come in. "I will tell you a story about grandpa and grandma," she said. "A long time before you were born your grandpa and grandma came to this state. They came in a thing you have not seen. Do you know what it was?" "A car?" "No. I will tell you what it was. It was a covered wagon. You will study that in school. I will tell you some more tomorrow. You may go out and play now, dear." The girl went out. When she went to school she knew a lot about those things.—Sylvia Smith, A-3.

Mrs. Wone's Class: A SHORT STORY OF CALIFORNIA: California in 1492 was full of Indians, but as usual they found California. And there was a man called Junipero Serra. He taught the Bible to the Indians. And then about 1848 the American Army came and took California.—Dick Pendergast, B-4.

Mrs. Gardner's Class: The 6B class is studying prehistoric life, and the kind of animals that lived at that time, also discoveries of prehistoric man that made his living conditions better. We have been drawing pictures of prehistoric animals and early man.—Malcolm Gerschler.

Mrs. Gardner's Class: The boys and girls of Mrs. Gardner's 6-B class are as follows: Jimmie Barker, Grace Bawden, Curtis Brann, Donald Camp, Lazarus Candelaria, Jeanette Carlson, Tommy Cox, Terry Dawson, Malcolm Gerschler, Norman Green, Miner Harkness, Helen Hoshino, Stanley Huntsinger, Phyllis Lentz, Gilbert Martinez, Betty McDaniels, Adella Mendoza, Victoria Mesa, Evelyn Noshier, Gertrude Oakley, Tommy Polgreen, Marvel Roberts, Bernie Shapiro, Mary Jean Smedley, Rosemary Tarwater, Celesta Thayer, Nobuko Umekubo, Keith Wallace, Ben Yarnell, Lois Faller, Forrest Besocke.—Ben Yarnell.

Helen Gahagan and Mrs. Chester Arthur will be the speakers at the regular breakfast meeting of the Democratic County Central Committee which will be held at the Pasadena Athletic Club, at 9 o'clock Sunday morning.

Piatigorsky, Great 'Cellist, Coming To Pasadena

Gregor Piatigorsky, now conceded to be the greatest living 'cellist, gives his only concert in the vicinity of Los Angeles this season on Sunday evening, March 9th, at 8:30 in the Pasadena Playhouse.

The man who is credited with starting new interest in and love of the 'cello and its music throughout the world was born in a little village of the Ukraine. So great was his talent that at 15 he was the first 'cellist of the Imperial Opera of Moscow. Then came the revolution and Piatigorsky was smuggled across the border into Poland, quite a feat for a young man 6 feet 3½ inches tall. Now, still in his thirties, he is an American citizen, likes to be called "the American 'cellist" and is the idol of concert audiences across the country.

Mothers Hear Aims Of Brownie Scouts

Mothers of the Brownie Scouts were guests of the Brownie leaders Tuesday afternoon when they met at the home of Mrs. Steve O'Donnell on West Grand View.

The Brownie Scout program, which covers a period of three years, is divided into three groups, according to ages. The first group is taught helpfulness at home. The second group is taught helpfulness in community life. Since the Girl Scout organization is an international one, the third group learns about other lands as well as their own. Home making is added to the program of study, and drama and handicrafts are continued.

Mrs. I. L. Clarich explained the courtesy chart to the mothers, and Mrs. O'Donnell reported on the training course for Brownie leaders, which she attended in Pasadena. A Senior Scout, Lois Wilson, and a Mariner, Patricia Andrews, presented highlights of the advanced Scouting program. Mrs. Don Strite explained the intermediate Scout program.

Guests for the afternoon were the troop committee, Mrs. Raymond Simpson, Miss Elizabeth Steinberger and Mrs. Ross Marshall. Other mothers were: Mesdames Sam Haskins, Carl Annas, Irma Jones, Edward Keating, Glen Love, John Mason, Theodore Dunham, Wayne Perry, L. F. Pierson, Ralph Valencia, Joseph Worthington and R. E. Parmenter, leader of the Senior Scouts. Hostesses were Mrs. Clarich, Mrs. Andrews and Mrs. O'Donnell.

Hartley Davis of West Montecito avenue who joined the National Guard last October, is enjoying a short visit with relatives at Medford, Ore., before leaving for the National Guard Encampment at San Luis Obispo, March 4.

When friendship is settled you must trust; before it is formed, you must pass judgment. —Seneca.

'To Asia For Apes' Is Travel Film Coming To The Auditorium

One of the main characters in the exciting film which The Pacific Geographic Society brings to Pasadena Civic Auditorium on Thursday night, March 6th, is young "Dishface," in infant orang-utang captured by Dr. Harold J. Coolidge of Harvard Museum while filming "To Asia for Apes" in northern Borneo. Dr. Coolidge is the last speaker in the 1940-41 season of the highly successful series The Society brings to Southern California.

The antics of the orang-utang "Dishface" and the beautiful black-faced gibbons in the Coolidge film will be a delight to children. It will be remembered that the Martin Johnson films were notable "family entertainment." Dr. Coolidge has filmed the community life of the gibbon which Mr. Johnson was never able to get in Africa, for these smallest of the anthropoid apes are more plentiful in Asia and it was for the purpose of studying them, and particularly to determine if possible whether they have a language, that Dr. Coolidge and his colleagues at Johns Hopkins and Columbia University spent months in the mountain jungles of Borneo, Siam and Sumatra. Sound recordings of the gibbon "symphony" were made and these will accompany the film, vividly described by Dr. Coolidge in person.
